SAVE THE BOUNDARY WATERS

Amy Freeman and her husband, Dave have traveled over 30,000 miles by kayak, canoe and dogsled through some of the world's wildest places, from the Amazon to the Arctic. National Geographic named Amy and Dave 2014 Adventurers of the Year. The Freemans are ardent wilderness advocates who are actively working with the Campaign to Save the Boundary Waters (www.SaveTheBoundaryWaters.org) to protect the Boundary Waters Canoe Area Wilderness from sulfide-ore copper mines being proposed along the edge of our nation's most popular wilderness. When not on expeditions, Amy guides canoe, kayak and dogsled trips in northern Minnesota. We are thrilled to bring Amy indoors, at the Student Life Lounge, and learn from her outdoor experiences!
